

CANADA-WIDE SCIENCE FESTIVAL 2016 TO BE HELD IN MONTREAL!

Hosted at McGill University from May 15th to May 20th 2016

The top 500 finalists from across Canada are coming!

CALL FOR 340 JUDGES

You will meet many students who will amaze you.
The best projects are at the level of a Masters Degree.
At stake is approximately one million dollars in scholarships and awards.

Profile

Engineers from all disciplines
Medical or healthcare background
(doctors, microbiologists, nurses, pharmacists, and others)
Scientists from industry and government laboratories (chemists, physicists, and more)
Faculty at Universities, Colleges and Secondary levels

Those who are bilingual in French and English are particularly welcome

Qualifications

PhD, MSc or equivalent professional qualifications (P.Eng)
Graduate students who have a special interest and experience in outreach
Experienced science fair judges at regional & provincial fairs are welcome
Students in undergraduate programs are ineligible to judge at the CWSF

When and Where

Sunday, May 15, 2016 (16:00 to 21:30) - Orientation
Monday, May 16, 2016 (08:00 to 17:30) - Judging
McGill University (Tomlinson Fieldhouse)

Montreal Judges Recruitment Team

David Lowther - Ken Elliott

In collaboration with

chief.judge@youthscience.ca
cwsf.youthscience.ca

CANADA-WIDE SCIENCE FESTIVAL 2016 TO BE HELD IN MONTREAL!

Hosted at McGill University from May 14th to May 21th 2016

The top 500 exhibitors from across Canada are coming to Montreal!

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS!

10,000 public and school visitors are anticipated

STEM teacher's conference happening too!

Can you spare an hour?
2-hours? day? all-week?

Where we need help....

Greeters, clerical help, activity animators, chaperones, information booth, tour guides, many more!

Profile

Legal age and without criminal record
Friendly and with a good disposition
Bilingualism or functional knowledge of French
Some knowledge of McGill campus and/or Montreal

Training & Rewards

Orientation training to be given
Volunteer BBQ

In collaboration with

cwsf-volunteer@sciencetech.ca

Registration : www.sciencetech.ca/cwsf-volunteer

General info: cwsf.youthscience.ca